

Sri Matriniketan Ashram

Report -2022

ON ITS 19TH FOUNDATION DAY FUNCTION,
01.02.2022

“Who can understand Sri Aurobindo? He is as vast as the universe and his teaching is infinite...The only way to come a little close to him is to love him sincerely and give oneself unreservedly to his work. Thus, each one does his best and contributes as much as he can to that transformation of the world which Sri Aurobindo has predicted.”¹

Sri Matriniketan Ashram Report-2022

“But the difficulty is to find the “some one” who knows Sri Aurobindo thoroughly...who is capable of receiving His inspirations directly...capable of understanding Sri Aurobindo’s inspiration and transmitting it...and has at the same time very strong character... For years I have been looking for that man, without finding him.”²

The Mother

This report contains eight declarations while retracing a path of integral Yoga.

First Declaration: We partly fulfil the instruction issued in Sri Aurobindo’s principal Teachings, The Synthesis of Yoga that a Sadhaka of integral Yoga must be accountable³ for his Sadhana to the Self, the World and the Divine. The quality of an individual and an institution is weighed from the degree of Truth, Purity and Knowledge they have worked out from a Transcendent Source. The Most conscious individual prepares himself to become a channel through which incalculable quantum of Divine Force, Love, Delight, Wisdom and Beauty rushes into the earth’s atmosphere and thus he contributes enrichment of present earth’s existence, sarvabhuta hiteratah. He needs no external support, bahya avalambana, to fulfil this condition but wholly dependent on inner aid, antara avalambana, of faith, sincerity, and surrender.

Second Declaration: The Synthesis of Yoga book issues an injunction on a Sadhaka in this path of integral Yoga that he must have ‘his own method of Yoga’⁴ or ‘the perfection of the integral Yoga will come when each man is able to follow his own path of Yoga.’⁵ This own path he can trace by restating the written truth or the best standard available to the race. We have identified The Synthesis of Yoga as the principal approved Shashtra and the highest truth hinted but not developed in it is further developed in its three approved complementary Shashtra, that of The Life Divine, The Mother and Savitri. For this purpose of developing our own path of Yoga, Sri Aurobindo has given ‘an absolute liberty’⁶ to a Sadhaka through the principal Shashtra to restate knowledge ‘in new terms and new combinations’⁶ and ‘to organise it anew for the present and the future’⁶ action.

Third Declaration: The Synthesis of Yoga book issues three injunctions to a Sadhaka for his sadhana. Firstly, he will trace a path of his own sadhana by constantly renewing, reshaping, reliving, and restating the best written standard available to the race and by noting the full account of his human imperfection and Self-perfection. Secondly, during the concentration, contemplation and meditation of these formative truths extending over decades, he receives new overhead Divine Wisdom, Divine Will and Divine Love and the unending instrumental exercise of a Sadhaka is to learn this lesson of the Infinite which gets precedence over all other appetite and interest. Lastly, he will be a Divine Centre of the world by receiving the Divine energies, of holding them in the purified and transformed human vessel, of transmitting them to the surrounding world and of fulfilling the deficiencies of men.

Fourth Declaration: In order to arrive at the Tantric aim of purification, transformation and perfection of Nature or fullness of life, consciousness and being, a Sadhaka of integral Yoga must have strong foundation of Vedantic Spirituality. “His Yoga may be governed for a long time by one Scripture or by several successively,— if it is in the line of the great Hindu tradition, by the Gita, for example, the Upanishads, the Veda. Or it may be a good part of his development to include in its material a richly varied experience of the truths of many Scriptures and make the future opulent with all that is best in the past.”⁷

Fifth Declaration: “For the methods of the integral Yoga must be mainly spiritual, and dependence on physical methods or fixed psychic or psycho-physical processes on a large scale would be the substitution of a lower for a higher action.”⁸

Sixth Declaration: Sri Aurobindo’s Teachings is the restatement and development of the highest hinted truth in ancient Vedantic and traditional Yoga. A thorough knowledge on Sri Aurobindo’s Teachings asks thorough mental and Spiritual knowledge on ancient and latter Vedantic schools of Yoga. The Mother’s Teaching¹⁴ is identified as a restatement of Sri Aurobindo’s Teachings and it can be rightly understood¹³ if linked¹⁵ with the Principal Shastra, The Synthesis of Yoga. Because, whatever The Mother has said to an Ashramite for pursuance of his individual Yoga, the same thing is universalised in The Synthesis of Yoga for a Sadhaka for pursuance of universal Yoga. A thorough knowledge on The Mother’s Teachings asks thorough mental and Spiritual knowledge on Sri Aurobindo’s Teachings. Their Teachings are utilised as means to enter Divine union exclusively. A large scale entry into Their Teachings can confirm large Divine descent.

Seventh Declaration: “The gnostic being would feel a single consonant Force of supernature acting in all: he would accept its formation in himself and obey or use the knowledge and power it gave him for the divine work, but he would be under no urge or compulsion to set the power and knowledge in him against the power and knowledge of others or affirm himself as an ego striving against other egos.”⁹

“This world is a vast unbroken totality,
A deep solidarity joins its contrary powers;
God’s summits look back on the mute Abyss.”¹⁰

Eighth Declaration: We must pursue Sadhana by outwardly becoming a mere man of action like the woodsman status of Paramatma Satyavan and inwardly like King Aswapati, who drops all his separative identity in the Divine, possesses the highest objective of Jnana and Bhakti Yoga by becoming a Karma Yogi. We must note that while pursuing this difficult Yoga if we experience Spiritual fall then, also we can again pursue this Sadhana of Karma Yoga like King Dyumatsena, in double seclusion that of an outcast from the privilege of light of the outer world and renouncing the enjoyment of five senses symbolised here as loss of eyesight.

We must learn to consecrate our Soul's childhood near the Mother Soul, here identified as Paraprakriti Savitri, who serves earth and her children from below like a slave and from above like a Sunlight.

Sri Aurobindo proposes success of integral Yoga will come when our central faith rests on the ‘vision which see only the Divine and seek only after the Divine’¹¹ and perfection of integral Yoga will come when each Sadhaka has his own path of Yoga which he can retrace¹⁶ only by constantly renovating all the written ‘truth and practice.’¹² On this auspicious occasion of Ashram’s 19th Foundation Day function, we offer our life and action with love and supreme gratitude and aspire to live Their great Teachings.

We could try. Not for publication! Because there is immediately a debasing: everything that is published is debased, otherwise people don’t understand. We would do it for ourselves.” The Mother’s Agenda-6/237, (The above passage hints those translations and restatement of 15: "When I read what Sri Aurobindo writes in The Synthesis (of Yoga), how things should be (law of Sadhaka) and what they are now (law of Ashramite), when I see the two, that is when I feel we are turning in circles.

It (law of Sadhaka) is more and more a universal yoga—the whole earth—and it is like that day and night, when I walk and when I speak and when I eat. It is constantly like that. As if the whole earth were... it is like kneading dough to make it rise.

But when I read his Yoga of Self-Perfection and see...simply what we are...phew (very few can pursue this Yoga)! What yeast we would need to make all that rise!

But this is not true: He alone is doing it, it is always He.

And sometimes things stagnate, they seem so absolutely obscure and stupid. And then, if you simply go like this (gesture of offering), simply, truly—do it, not think it—it is instantly like a shower of bliss...A tiny point, something very small which looks stubbornly stupid and obstinate, if only you do this (and if you want, you can): 'Take, take!' Give it to Him, simply, like this, truly give it to Him: 'It is Yours, take it, do with it what You want.' And instantly, instead of this shrinking and this painful feeling —'What in the world can I do with all this?'—a shower, it comes like a shower. Truly Ananda. Of course, if you are stupid enough to call back the difficulty, it returns. But if you remain quiet, if you keep your head quiet, it goes—finished, cured. But there are thousands and thousands and thousands of such points..." The Mother/The Mother's Agenda-1/400-401, (The above message hints that the Mother was not satisfied with Ashram law She had formulated and there exists a higher law of consecrated universal Yoga for liberated Souls.)

16: "To retrace the path in all innocence as though one had never before travelled it, is the true purity, the perfect sincerity—the sincerity that brings an uninterrupted progress, growth, an integral perfectioning." The Mother/Prayers and Meditations/20th August, 1914, "And when, as I told you, I chanced upon a book or an individual that could give me just a little clue and tell me, 'Here. Rapport de l'Ashram de Sri Matriniketan - 2022

À l'occasion de sa 19e Journée de la Fondation,
01.02.2022

«Qui peut comprendre Sri Aurobindo ? Il est aussi vaste que l'univers et son enseignement est infini... La seule façon de s'approcher un peu de lui est de l'aimer sincèrement et de se donner sans réserve à son œuvre. Ainsi, chacun fait de son mieux et contribue autant qu'il peut à cette transformation du monde que Sri Aurobindo a prédite.»

Rapport de l'Ashram de Sri Matríniketan - 2022

«Mais la difficulté est de trouver « quelqu'un » qui connaisse à fond Sri Aurobindo... qui soit capable de recevoir directement Ses inspirations... capable de comprendre l'inspiration de Sri Aurobindo et de la transmettre... et qui ait en même temps un caractère très fort... Depuis des années, je cherche cet homme, sans le trouver.»

La Mère

Ce rapport contient huit déclarations tout en retracant un cheminement de Yoga intégral.

Première Déclaration: Nous accomplissons en partie l'instruction émise dans les principaux Enseignements de Sri Aurobindo, La Synthèse des Yogas selon laquelle un Sadhaka du Yoga intégral doit être responsable de sa Sadhana envers le Soi, le Monde et le Divin. La qualité d'un individu et d'une institution est évaluée par le degré de Vérité, de Pureté et de Connaissance qu'ils ont exécuté à partir d'une Source Transcendante. L'individu le plus conscient se prépare à devenir un canal par lequel un quantum incalculable de Force divine, d'Amour, de Délice, de Sagesse et de Beauté se précipite dans l'atmosphère terrestre et contribue ainsi à l'enrichissement de l'existence terrestre actuelle, sarvabhuta hiteratah. Il n'a besoin d'aucun soutien extérieur, bahya avalambana, pour remplir cette condition, mais dépend entièrement de l'aide intérieure, antara avalambana, de la foi, de la sincérité et de l'abandon.

Deuxième Déclaration : Le livre de 'La Synthèse des Yogas' émet une injonction à un Sadhaka dans cette voie du Yoga intégral qu'il doit avoir "sa propre méthode de Yoga" ou 'la perfection du Yoga intégral viendra quand chaque homme sera capable de suivre son propre chemin de Yoga.' Ce propre chemin qu'il peut tracer en rénovant la vérité écrite ou le meilleur standard disponible pour la race. Nous avons identifié 'La Synthèse des Yogas' comme le Shashtra principal approuvé et la vérité la plus élevée évoquée mais non développée dans celui-ci est développée plus avant dans ses trois Shashtra complémentaires approuvés, celui de La Vie Divine, La Mère et Savitri. Dans ce but de développer notre propre voie de Yoga, Sri Aurobindo a donné "une liberté absolue" à un Sadhaka à travers le Shashtra principal rénover la connaissance "en termes nouveaux et de nouvelles combinaisons" et «l'organiser à nouveau pour le présent et l'avenir» action.

Troisième déclaration: Le livre 'La Synthèse des Yogas' délivre trois injonctions à un Sadhaka pour sa sadhana. Premièrement, il tracera le chemin de sa propre sadhana en renouvelant, remodelant, revivant et reformulant constamment la meilleure norme écrite disponible pour la race et en notant le récit complet de son imperfection humaine et de sa perfection personnelle. Deuxièmement, pendant la concentration, la contemplation et la méditation de ces vérités formatrices s'étendant sur des décennies, il reçoit de nouveaux frais généraux Sagesse Divine, Volonté Divine et Amour Divin et l'exercice instrumental sans fin d'un Sadhaka est d'apprendre cette leçon de l'Infini qui prime sur tout autre appétit et intérêt. Enfin, il sera un Centre Divin du monde en recevant les énergies Divines, en les retenant dans le vaisseau humain purifié et transformé, en les transmettant au monde environnant et en comblant les carences des hommes.

Quatrième Déclaration: «Son Yoga peut être gouverné pendant longtemps par une Écriture ou plusieurs successivement, — la Gîtâ, par exemple, les Upanishads, le Veda, si sa voie est celle de la grande tradition hindoue. Il se peut aussi qu'une bonne partie de son développement utilise comme matériaux l'expérience variée des vérités de nombreuses Écritures et enrichisse ainsi l'avenir de tout ce que le passé a de meilleur.» CWSA-23/The Synthesis of Yoga-p-55,

Cinquième Déclaration: «Les méthodes du Yoga intégral, en effet, doivent être essentiellement spirituelles; or dépendre dans une large mesure de méthodes physiques ou de procédés psychiques ou psycho-physiques stéréotypés, c'est substituer un fonctionnement inférieure à un fonctionnement supérieure.» Sri Aurobindo/The Synthesis of Yoga-p-542

Sixième Déclaration: Les Enseignements de Sri Aurobindo sont la reformulation et le développement de la plus haute vérité suggérée dans l'ancien Védantique et le Yoga traditionnel. Une connaissance approfondie des enseignements de Sri Aurobindo demande une connaissance mentale et spirituelle approfondie des écoles de yoga védantiques anciennes et récentes. L'Enseignement de la Mère est identifié comme une reformulation des Enseignements de Sri Aurobindo et il peut être correctement compris s'il est lié au Shashtra Principal, 'La Synthèse des Yogas.' Une connaissance approfondie des Enseignements de la Mère demande une connaissance mentale et spirituelle approfondie des Enseignements de Sri Aurobindo.

Septième Déclaration: «L'être gnostique sentirait une seule Force consonantique de surnature agissant en tout : il accepterait sa formation en lui-même et obéirait ou utiliserait la connaissance et le pouvoir qu'elle lui donnerait pour l'œuvre divine, mais il ne serait soumis à aucune impulsion ou la compulsion à opposer le pouvoir et le savoir en lui au pouvoir et au savoir des autres ou à s'affirmer comme un ego luttant contre d'autres ego.» Sri Aurobindo/The Life Divine-1069,

« Ce monde est une vaste totalité ininterrompue,
Une profonde solidarité rejoint ses puissances contraires ;
Les sommets de Dieu regardent en arrière sur l'Abîme muet.» Savitri-541,

Huitième déclaration: Nous devons poursuivre la Sadhana en devenant extérieurement un simple homme d'action comme le statut de bûcheron de Paramatma Satyavan et intérieurement comme le roi Aswapati, qui abandonne toute son identité séparative dans le Divin, possède l'objectif le plus élevé de Jnana et de Bhakti Yoga en devenant un Karma Yogi. Nous devons noter qu'en poursuivant ce yoga difficile, si nous faisons l'expérience d'une chute spirituelle, nous pouvons également poursuivre cette Sadhana du Karma Yoga comme le roi Dyumatsena, dans une double isolation celle d'un paria du privilège de la lumière du monde extérieur et en renonçant à la jouissance des cinq sens symbolisés ici par la perte de la vue. Nous devons apprendre à consacrer notre statut d'âme enfant auprès de l'âme mère, identifiée ici comme Paraprakriti Savitri, qui sert la terre et ses enfants d'en bas comme un esclave et d'en haut comme une lumière solaire.

Sri Aurobindo propose que le succès du Yoga intégral viendra lorsque notre foi centrale reposera sur la «vision qui ne voit que le Divin et ne recherche que le Divin» et que la perfection du Yoga intégral viendra lorsque chaque Sadhaka aura son propre chemin de Yoga qu'il peut retracer seulement en renouvelant constamment toute la «vérité et la pratique» écrites. En cette occasion propice de la 19e cérémonie de la Journée de la Fondation de l'Ashram, nous offrons notre vie et notre action avec amour et gratitude suprême et aspirons à vivre Leurs grands Enseignements.
